What Is and Is Not Gambling?

Strictly defined gambling is the act or practice of betting. It is "the act of playing a game and consciously risking money or other stakes on its outcome." Some say that all of life is a gamble and everything we do involves risk and is no different from casino gambling or wagering in any form. Gambling, however, involves the creation of unnecessary risks.

In life we make judgments consistent with the natural laws relating to the various parts of life. In gambling one risks everything on blind luck, the scratch of a card, a roll of the dice, a spin of the wheel, or a flip of a coin.

The farmer does not gamble when he invests his time, money and assets to plant his yearly crop. "Be patient, therefore, brothers, until the coming of the Lord. See how the farmer waits for the precious fruit of the earth, being patient about it, until it receives the early and the late rains." James 5:7.

The factory owner does not gamble when he designs a new style of product for the market he sees. <sup>14</sup>yet you do not know what tomorrow will bring. What is your life? For you are a mist that appears for a little time and then vanishes. <sup>15</sup>Instead you ought to say, "If the Lord wills, we will live and do this or that." <sup>16</sup>As it is, you boast in your arrogance. All such boasting is evil. <sup>17</sup>So whoever knows the right thing to do and fails to do it, for him it is sin." James 4:14-17.

One who invests in stocks does not take inordinate chances with his resources when he invests in legitimate enterprises, please read the parable of the talents found in Matthew 25:14-30.

Gambling is trying to get something for nothing -- without rendering a service, exchanging goods or providing any other remuneration for the benefit received.

<sup>11</sup>Do not be slothful in zeal, be fervent in spirit, serve the Lord. <sup>13</sup>Contribute to the needs of the saints and seek to show hospitality. <sup>17</sup>Repay no one evil for evil, but give thought to do what is honorable in the sight of all. <sup>21</sup>Do not be overcome by evil, but overcome evil with good." Romans 12: 11, 13, 17, 21.

The Better Choice

David Wright

As Christians we tend to separate personal sin into two categories—"big sins" and "little sins." It is sometimes said that small wrongs are the things / do, while major trespasses are the things other people do. Perhaps it is more common for the church to think that big sins are the transgressions associated with social disgrace. For instance, a person sins big if he has committed adultery, embezzled money, trafficked in drugs, murdered a neighbor, or performed an abortion.

This view overlooks a very serious offense. Pride may parade itself with little fear of public censure, yet it is utterly abominable to God. Arrogance corrupts the heart with selfishness, poisons the mind toward others made in the divine image, incites rebellion against the Lord, and stands in the way of repentance and salvation. Solomon lists "six things the Lord hates, seven that are detestable to him: haughty eyes, a lying tongue, hands that shed innocent blood, a heart that devises wicked schemes, feet that are quick to rush into evil, a false witness who pours out lies and a man who stirs up dissension among brothers" (Prov. 6:16-19, NIV). This catalogue of abominations certainly includes socially shameful things (such as lying lips and bloody hands). But what item heads the list?

The Christian guilty of pride may deal with this sin in one of two ways. On the one hand, he may wait for God to humble him, to bring him crashing down. This was the course chosen by Israel in the desert. Moses said: "You shall remember all the way which the Lord your God has led you these forty years in the wilderness, that he might humble you, testing you to know what was in your heart, whether you would keep his commandments, or not. And he humbled you and let you hunger" (Deut. 8:2-3). On the other hand, a Christian may choose to humble himself by passionately seeking and imitating Jesus. For obvious reasons, this is the better choice.

Sermon

Ps. 119:9-16

How We Got the Bible (a.m.)

Strengthen Your Weak Knees (p.m.)

6 But he gives more grace. Therefore it says, "God opposes the proud, but gives grace to the humble." 7 Submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you. 8 Draw near to God, and he will draw near to you. Cleanse your hands, you sinners, and purify your hearts, you double-minded. 9 Be wretched and mourn and weep. Let your laughter be turned to mourning and your joy to gloom. 10 Humble yourselves before the Lord, and he will exalt you.

James 4:6-10

Hamburg Pike Happenings
